DEMPSEY MAY MEET MEEHAN IN JERSEY

California "Fat Boy" Most Likely Opponent for Heavyweight Champion.

Articles of Agreement May Be Signed Here on Friday for Newark Bout.

PROMOTER MAKES OFFER

By CHARLES F. MATHISON.

There is a reasonable prospect that Jack Dempsey, the heavyweight chamon of the world, will box in a Jersey ring before the end of the winter. If promoters and the boxer can agree Dempsey if he meets Levinsky on De-cember 8, $25,000 if Mechan is the op-ponent of the champion and $30,000 if ponent of the champion and solved in Fulton is selected. It was regarded as doubtful if Fulton could get over here from England in time to box on De-cember 8, and in any event Kearns said Dempsey would hardly be ready to box on that date, for after his circus en-gagement ends on November 15 at Atlanta he will have a motion picture con-tract to fulfill, and he would need at least three weeks in which to train. Meehan stands the best chance of boxnless he was in first class condition and he expressed a preference for a date in January or February. Finally MacKay and the other promoters withdrew with the understanding that they would meet again next Friday, on which occasion a concrete proposition will be made to Kearns. In addition to MacKay's offer, Kearns received telegraphic proposals fro Philadelphia and other boxing centres.

"Strangler" Lewis Here To-day. Strangler Lewis, the head lock ex-pert, who is to wrestle Joe Stecher, of hody scissors fame, at Madison Square Garden next Monday night, will arrive o-day and complete his preparations for the tussie. In order to have his head lock in good working order the Strangler has brought with him the dummy head.

Howard a Lucky Fellow.

Johnny Howard of Bayonne is not only a good policeman and a fairly good boxer, but is extremely lucky. Howard was in the ring with Eugene Brosseau in a theatre in Montreal last Monday night and the Canadian was handing a terrific thumping to the Jerseyman. It looked in the eighth round as though Howard would soon be rocked to slum-ber, for he was wabbly and was the receiver-general of an assortment of Dicheavy wallops. Suddenly temporary meats on the stage collapsed, the elec-the football championship of Manhattan and The Bronx will take place next Saturday afternoon at the Polo Grounds and Dyckman Oval. Stuyvesant and Clinton will come together at Dyckman Oval while Morris and Commerce will fight it out on the Giants' baseball field. These games are the most important of the season and will have much to do with the deciding of the title.

Although Coach Cook's team will be without the services of two of its best players, the Red and Black nevertheless should ers, the Red and Black nevertheless should beat Stuyvesnnt, Richard McAneny, Clinton's left tackle, and Captain Nelson Galbraith, fuliback, will be out of the lineup because of injuries. Galbraith sprained his ankle in the game with Concordia Prep last Saturday, while McAneny injured his knee in his team's contest with the Columbia freshmen two weeks ago.

The race for the honor of scoring the greatest number of points for the season so far is the keenest in years. Nelson Galbraith of Clinton is leading the other players of the city. The Red and Black fullback has four touchdowns and seven goals from touchdown to his credit for a total of thirty-one points. A triple tie exists for the second place honors between Roy Isenberg of Clinton, Mc-Rea of Poly Prep and Schmidt of Flushing. Each has thirty points. Boohecker of Erasmus holds down fourth place with twenty points.

McRea of Poly still leads in the num-ber of field goals kicked this season. The Dyker Heights lad has kicked three. Agricultural College to-day notified the credit, while Morgan of St. John's Fr. football management of Boston College Randall of Stuyvesant, Robertson that it had cancelled the game scheduled New York University freshmen and Hal-lock of Flusning have each kicked one.

GOLFERS OPPOSED TO STANDARD BALL

Scheme to Restrict Development of Long Driving Is Frowned On.

By INNIS BROWN.

Since the receipt of news in this country that a movement has been broached in Great Britain to standardize golf balls but little comment by golf officials has been made on the subject. However, golfers have apparently given some thought to the matter. At recent tournaments in the metropolitan district the writer has mentioned the subject to several players and almost unanimously

In discussing the matter at the Greenwich tournament recently a man who is keenly interested in golf and has been a devotee of the game for several years remarked: "If you want to do the game of golf a good turn take a wallop at this talk of standardizing golf balls. That is one of the most absurd suggestions I have ever heard made in con nection with the game.

"All of this talk of limiting distance cision by twenty lengths. It was no contest. Slik Bird was pulled up after clearing the first hedge. He showed signs of lameness. Harwood took the second end of the purse and Minton China was third.

Buddy Ensor was carded to ride several horses during the purse and the content of the strongest appeals of the game. I have studied to show the content of the purse and the content of the strongest appeals of the stronges on shots from the tee by restricting the feature of the game. I have studied the game and players pretty closely and I figure it about like this: Ninety of a hundred players get their keenest satis-faction out of a fine drive. Eight of the remaining ten pride themselves on their putting and the small two per cent. boast of their short approaches.

Hoover to Baker on Killing of Does.

Dr. Hugh P. Baker, Dean, New York State College of Forestry—Dear Doctor Baker: I have been favored by THE SUN with a clipping containing your reply to the query of "White Birch," "Do you regard it biologically right to permit the killing of does in the Adirondacks?" I can heartly commend the good sense you displayed when you said, "I did not like to write where a man refuses to sign his name," referring to the persistent anonymity under which "White Birch," has been careful to hide himself. Had you adhered to your first impules to ignore an anonymous correspondent you would not have failen into at least one of the errors of which you are now a victim.

You devoted a large part of your letter to explaining why your name appeared among the members of "The New York Conservation Association Biological Committee." The fact is that you were trying to explain something that is not true. Four years ago you were appointed and in an appreciative letter accepted appointment as a member of the biological committee. Striped Bass Taken at Gifford's.
The striped bass trolling at Gifford's, Staten Island, is better cuts season than in many years past. Off the cut, between Oakwood and the Kills, four striped bass were taken the other day by L. J. Dischings and Alber' Rudgs. The fish sweighed 1½, 4, 4% and 6% pounds each. Trolling with sandworms, Frank Prink and Harry Furness took two stripers weighing 1 and 2% pounds respectively.
On Sunday Bill Baker caught a 5½ pound channel bass on sandworms, trolling with a spinner.
Lafayettee are biting and good catches have been made of late.
New York, Oct. 28.

Hake and Whiting at Lightship.
Fishing southeast of the Lightship on Sunday, fishermen in the Joe Pinkett from Sinespehead Hay caught hake and whiting. The fish were so plentiful that messes of four and five were sold for a quarter.
Hake and whiting are now coming up to the Bell Buoy and will soon be at the Hook also.

Flounders in Sheepshead Bay Entrance.

New York Conservation Association had speakers from over forty counties and helped to carry the day for progressive conservation.

We were against the killing of 5.000 does under the buok law. We hope to see the toil of both bucks and does decreased under the one deer law. If that is not accomplished we'll favor trying something else, but not the doe killing buck law. One would expect an anonymous correspondent like "White Birch" to yelp as the wrong trail, so he has our contempt. For a dignified gentleman like yourself who goes wrong on the say of an inknown we have nothing but the profoundest servey.
